

A photograph of two men in a boat, likely Jesus and his disciples, pulling a large fishing net. The man on the left has a long beard and hair, wearing a simple brown tunic. The man on the right is leaning forward, also in a simple tunic. They are both focused on their task. The background is a clear blue sky. The text 'Sulla tua parola,' is written in green at the top, and 'getteremo le reti.' is written in green with a white outline at the bottom left.

Sulla tua parola,

le reti.
