

The image features a central scene of Jesus, with long brown hair and a beard, wearing a white shawl and a brown robe. He is embracing a woman in a green headscarf and purple dress, who has her eyes closed and a tearful expression. Another woman in a grey headscarf is visible in the foreground, also with her hands near the woman being embraced. The background is a solid purple color. In the bottom right corner, there is an inset image showing a group of people in a room, with one person lying on the floor and others gathered around them.
